Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

DETAILED ACTION

The action is in response to the Amendment received on 29 June 2007 in which claims 1-9, 15-18, 25-29, 32-33, and 36 are pending. Claims 10-14, 19-24, 30-31, and 34-35 were cancelled. Applicant's request for reconsideration of the finality of the rejection of the last Office action is persuasive and, therefore, the finality of that action is withdrawn.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 1-9 and 37-38 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Bayer (U.S. Patent No. 2005/0111686).

Regarding claims 1-9, Bayer teaches a device for facilitating hearing, the device (figs. 12-15) comprising: an earpiece (320) configured to be captured at least partially within the conchae of an ear, the earpiece comprising at least one generally arcuate rib ((332, 364) and at least one generally vertical rib (334, 340) the generally vertical rib extending between points proximate ends of the arcuate rib; an acoustic conduit (fig. 15) configured so as to cause sound to pass through the earpiece; and wherein the earpiece is configured for use in either ear by re-orienting the earpiece without re-configuring the earpiece (paragraphs 0055-0059).

Art Unit: 2614

Regarding claim 37, Bayer teaches a device for facilitating hearing, the device (figs. 12-15) comprising: an earpiece (320) configured to be captured at least partially within the conchae of an ear, the earpiece comprising two ribs (332, 364; form arcuate portion with 2 detents/ribs) that are generally configured to define a D; an acoustic conduit (fig. 15) configured so as to cause sound to pass through the earpiece; and wherein the earpiece is configured for use in either ear by re-orienting the earpiece without re-configuring the earpiece (paragraph 0055-0059).

Regarding claim 38, Bayer teaches a device for facilitating hearing, the device (figs. 12-15) comprising: an earpiece (320) configured to be captured at least partially within the conchae of an ear, the earpiece comprising a boss (fig. 15) having a bore formed therethrough, the boss (fig. 15) being configured to extend at least partially into the ear canal; an acoustic conduit (fig. 15) configured so as to cause sound to pass through the earpiece; and wherein the earpiece is configured for use in either ear by re-orienting the earpiece without re-configuring the earpiece (paragraph 0055-0059).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Art Unit: 2614

Claims 15-18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Bayer (U.S. Patent No. 2002/0172386).

Regarding claims 15-17, Bayer does not teach the device as recited in claim 1, wherein the earpiece (10) is formed of any particular type of material including a resilient polymer having a Shore A durometer of between approximately 35 and approximately 45.

However, it is known to fabricate the earpiece of resilient materials such as rubber, silicone, vinyl, etc., that can have a durometer hardness in the range between 35 and 45 for providing softness and comfort to the user.

Therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to fabricate the earpiece of resilient materials such as rubber, silicone, vinyl, etc., in the invention of Bayer for the reasons stated above.

Regarding claim 18, Bayer does not teach the device as recited in claim 1, wherein the earpiece (10) is formed of any particular type of material including injection molding.

However, it is known to fabricate the earpiece of injection molded material for providing softness and comfort to the user.

Therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to fabricate the earpiece of injection molded material in the invention of Bayer for the reasons stated above.

Response to Arguments

Art Unit: 2614

Furthermore, the applicant did not traverse the examiner's assertion of official notice with respect to claims 15-18, 25-27, and 32-33 as noted in previous office action (dated 3 May 2006); therefore, the common knowledge or well-known in the art statement is taken to be admitted prior art because applicant failed to traverse the examiner's assertion of official notice (MPEP 2144.03).

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 25-29, 32-33 and 36 are allowed. With respect to the claims, the prior art of record fails to teach an earpiece comprising a generally arcuate rib and a generally vertical rib formed so as to generally define the letter D, and also comprises a boss having a bore formed there through, the boss being formed to the generally vertical rib; and wherein the earpiece is sufficiently symmetrical to be configured for use in either the right or left ear, as substantially described and connected with the other functional language of these claims

Conclusion
